Jean Edsall has her Master of Doll Making (MDM) degree with honor points. The MDM is earned after many successful Doll Artisan Guild (DAG) seminars in which she has made too many dolls to count and learned every doll painting technique known. She has taught many students how to make porcelain dolls for over 11 years in her own studio. She has won numerous first place ribbons for her painting skills and costuming expertise. Jean has also learned Dianna Effner's Eye Painting techniques and will soon be certified to teach these in the studio.
